THE POINT OF VIEW

Martin Krenn ONE SHOT 2007, 2:20

In a single take, a street scene is documented in which an elderly man, in an unexpected act, becomes the protagonist of the short film. ONE SHOT was filmed in Tirana/Albania and can be read as a metaphor for the fight (for survival) of the individual within post-communist society.

In einer Einstellung wird eine Straßenszene dokumentiert, in welcher ein älterer Mann, der eine unerwartete Handlung setzt, zum Protagonisten des Kurzfilms wird. Gedreht wurde ONE SHOT in Tirana/Albanien und kann als eine Metapher auf den (Überlebens-)Kampf des Einzelnen innerhalb der postkommunistischen Gesellschaft gelesen werden.

Oliver Ressler THE FITTEST SURVIVE 2006, 23:40

In order to prepare for the competitive, social Darwinist, pecking order of global capitalism, privately-owned security enterprises offer their self-developed civilian training programs that simulate conflict situations – in varying complexities up to war scenarios. One of these enterprises, the British AKE Group, promises, according to their web page, to provide "... clients the competitive advantage of engaging safely in areas that might otherwise have been closed to opportunity." The video THE FITTEST SURVIVE is based on filming the five-day course "Surviving Hostile Regions" done in Wales, Great Britain by the AKE Group.

Um auf die konkurrenzbetonte, sozial-darwinistische Hackordnung des globalen Kapitalismus vorzubereiten, bieten private Sicherheitsunternehmen eigens entwickelte Trainingsprogramme für ZivilistInnen an, in denen Konfliktsituationen bis zu Kriegsszenarien simuliert werden. Eines dieser Unternehmen ist die britische AKE Group, die laut Webpage ihren „Klienten einen Wettbewerbsvorteil verschafft, sich sicher in Gebieten engagieren zu können, die sonst für Geschäftsgelegenheiten möglicherweise nicht zugänglich wären“. Das Video THE FITTEST SURVIVE basiert auf Aufnahmen aus dem 5-tägigen Kurs „Surviving Hostile Regions“, der von der AKE Group in Wales in Großbritannien durchgeführt wurde.

Social Impact ONE SAFE WAY INTO THE FORTRESS EUROPE 2005, 3:30

Western Europe tightens its borders. Refugees drown in the sea or in border rivers, they die of exposure during the attempt to cross borders in the night, they suffocate in containers or commit suicide in custody pending deportation. Social Impact visits the border between Austria and the Czech Republic to draw attention to these dramatic events. Routes across the border are researched and are going to be available for download on the internet, as "guide book" with maps and as trailer for cinemas.

Westeuropa macht die Grenzen dicht. Flüchtlinge ertrinken im Meer oder in Grenzflüssen, sie erfrieren bei nächtlichen Grenzübertritten, ersticken in Containern oder begehen Selbstmord in Abschiebegefängnissen. Social Impact begibt sich an die Grenze zwischen Österreich und Tschechien, um auf diese dramatischen Geschehnisse aufmerksam zu machen und dokumentiert Fluchtrouten mit Überlebensgarantie. Aktuell als Download im Internet verfügbar, als Wanderführer oder Kinowerbespot.

SOCIAL IMPACT – KUNST & AKTIONSFORSCHUNG → Since 1997 Social Impact has been active in a number of different artistic genres to expand the manoeuvring space for marginalised groups. Migration, surveillance and repression have been points of reference for regional and exemplary intervention models. → Examples of actions taken so far: conception and distribution of a language guide for sex workers working the streets; fashion collection against police violence and racism; emergency accommodation for the homeless and for asylum seekers.

Stefan Kreuzer / Nino Leitner / Nataša Sienčnik GASTARBAJTERI NAZAJ DOMA 2007, 20:00

The documentary GASTARBAJTERI NAZAJ DOMA (Migrant workers back home) is a poetic portrait of three former migrant workers who left Yugoslavia in the seventies to try their luck in Germany. The economic boom of post war Europe produced an increased demand of labour. Whereas Germany became a new home for some, the protagonists of the film decided to return to their home country. They speak about their experiences of leaving their families, living in a foreign country and returning home.

Der Dokumentarfilm GASTARBAJTERI NAZAJ DOMA (Gastarbeiter wieder zu Hause) ist ein essayistisches Portrait von drei jugoslawischen Gastarbeitern, die in den 1970er Jahren nach Deutschland kamen. „670 km von zu Hause entfernt“, sagt Malika am Anfang des Filmes und definiert ihre geographische Emotionalität. „Zu Hause“ wird zur tragenden Idee des Films, ob nun in Deutschland oder im wieder gefundenen Heimatland. Malika, Maria und Jože sind nämlich zurück gekommen nach Slowenien – nach Hause.

Thomas Korschil ZUR GESCHICHTSPOLITIK DER SPÖ – UND IHREN FOLGEN 2006, 13:40
Mitarbeit: Eva Simmler

In part 1, KREISKY 1972, the chancellor, during the "Ortstafelsturm" (the demolition of bilingual street signs), invokes the myth of the "Kärntner Abwehrkampf" (Carinthian defensive battle) – to this day code for the collective suspicion and discrimination of the Slovene minority in Austria. At the same time he downplays the Nazi past of one of his cabinet members. Part 2, NEUHAUS/SUHA 2005, depicts provincial governor Haider's absurd attempt to defend the constitutional state against some of his enraged followers. A toadying statesman and a provincial politician trying to act the statesman.

In Teil 1, KREISKY 1972, beschwört der Bundeskanzler während des „Ortstafelsturmes“ den Mythos des „Kärntner Abwehrkampfes“ – bis heute Chiffre für die kollektive Verdächtigung und Herabsetzung der slowenischen Minderheit. Zugleich verharmlost er die NS-Vergangenheit eines Regierungsmitgliedes. Teil 2, NEUHAUS/SUHA 2005, zeigt Landeshauptmann Haider beim absurd anmutenden Versuch, aufgebrachten AnhängerInnen gegenüber den Rechtsstaat zu verteidigen. Ein Staatsmann biedert sich an. Ein Provinzpolitiker gibt den Staatsmann.

THOMAS KORSCHIL → Born 1968 in Salzburg. → Experimental and documentary films and videos. Film programmes. Texts. Teaching.

Klub Zwei RESPONSE ABILITY. HOW DO THE DESCENDANTS OF THE PERPETRATORS DEAL WITH THEIR HISTORY? / ANTWORTEN KÖNNEN. WIE GEHEN DIE NACHKOMMEN DER TÄTERINNEN MIT IHRER GESCHICHTE UM? 2006, 33:20

Klub Zwei speak about the legacy of emigration and the Holocaust. For Hannah Fröhlich, her own experience and reflections on living and working in Vienna as a Jew have led her to hand over the responsibility she once imposed on herself for "pointing out all the atrocities here". "Now," she says, "I only do it when I feel like it. When I have fun doing it." To me, this signifies that a Jewish woman minding her own business is capable of causing panic in Vienna, and she is aware of this power.

Anthony Auerbach, London

Wie gehen Nachkommen von Opfern und Tätern heute mit dem Nationalsozialismus um? Wie bestimmt sind solche familiären Konstellationen noch für die eigene Identität? Fragen dieser Art stehen im Mittelpunkt der Arbeit des Künstlerinnenduos Klub Zwei. In RESPONSE ABILITY (antworten können) werden zwei Interviews mit Jüdinnen zueinander in Dialog gesetzt, in denen es um Sichtweisen auf das gegenwärtige Wien und den Mangel an Auseinandersetzung mit der nationalsozialistischen Vergangenheit geht.

Anja Salomonowitz DAS WIRST DU NIE VERSTEHEN 2003, 52:00

My movie is about three women who belong to what is historically referred to as the generation of perpetrators and victims. With their different stories of life, different narrations and memories they all belong to one family, my family.

In meinem Film geht es um drei Frauen, die dem, was in der Geschichtswissenschaft als Täter- und Opfergeneration bezeichnet wird, angehören. Mit ihren unterschiedlichen Lebensgeschichten, unterschiedlichen Erzählungen und Erinnerungen leben sie alle in einer Familie, in meiner Familie.

Martin Lasinger KARFREITAG 2005 2005, 1:30

This is a true story. A woman told it to her grocer on Good Friday 2005. I liked it, because it is a story of over-saturation and renunciation, of feeding and refusal in all that remembrance of 2005. Finding pictures was hard, after I had set the whole thing, a friend gave me that gun cleaning set, he didn't like to have it at his home.

Das ist eine wahre Geschichte. Eine Frau hat sie ihrer Greißler am Karfreitag 2005 erzählt. Mir hat daran gefallen, dass es im ganzen Gedenken eine Geschichte von Übersättigung und Verzicht war; von gut gemeinter Zwangernährung und Verweigerung. Bilder finden fiel schwer. Nachdem ich das Ganze schon hingeschmissen hab, hat mir ein Freund das Waffenputzzeug geschenkt, weil er es nicht mehr daheim haben wollte.

Die Caritas Linz (Eva Forster) ist Auftraggeberin für den Videofilm, der im Rahmen eines EU-Projektes bei workshops von ENSI (European Network for Social Inclusion) eingesetzt wird. ## Stefanie Wuschitz TETESCHA US. SHE IS CROSSING BORDERS 2006, 9:20

Stefanie Wuschitz's TETESCHA US is an animated film that got its start in a cartoon workshop organised by Stefanie Wuschitz and Korinna Lindinger in the Palestinian refugee camp of Beddawi in the north of Lebanon. Palestinian girls took photos and drew cartoons. Stefanie Wuschitz based her animation on the pictures. The central theme in the work is the idea of the impossibility of presenting the conflicts in the Middle East in the form of a single, coherent story.

Karl-Heinz Klopf 60 SEKUNDEN IN DEN FARBEN MEINES HEMDES 2006, 1:30

A fictive, seven colour diagrammatic curve is built up at intervals of a second in the form of vertical coloured stripes on one of the artist's shirts. At the same time, the countdown of an electronic timer bleeps synchronously. This minimalist animation is an attempt to comment ironically on global developments and excesses, such as share prices, heights of buildings, speed.

In Form von vertikalen Farbbalken eines Hemdes des Künstlers baut sich im Sekundentakt eine fiktive, siebenfarbige Diagrammkurve auf. Dazu piepst synchron der Countdown eines elektronischen Zeitmessers. Diese minimalistische Animation ist der Versuch eines ironischen Kommentars zu globalen Entwicklungen und Übersteigerungen wie z.B. Aktienkursen, Gebäudehöhen, Geschwindigkeiten.
